UPDATE OF CAUTIONARY ANNOUNCEMENT PUBLISHED ON 24 MARCH 2026

LAHL was incorporated in 1998, is headquartered in Gaborone and has been publicly listed on the Botswana Stock Exchange (BSE) since 2002. LAHL is a pan-African financial institution offering microfinance and consumer lending solutions across eleven subsidiaries in sub-Saharan Africa.

In terms of section 5.4(c) of the Botswana Stock Exchange Equity Listings Requirements, an issuer is required to publish a cautionary announcement as soon as it is satisfied that a reasonable degree of certainty exists that the expected financial results for the upcoming period to be reported upon will differ by at least 10% from the most recent financial results for the previous corresponding period.

On 24 March 2026, the Company issued a cautionary announcement, advising of an expected loss after taxation of between 95% and 105% (P89 million to P98 million) higher than the loss after taxation for the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 of P93 million. The Company wishes to update that the position has changed to a loss after taxation of between 150% and 160% (P140 million to P149 million) higher than the loss after taxation for the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 of P93 million.

The Company further reports that there has been no change in the previously reported Group's continuing operations Profit after Taxation of between 360% and 370% (P221 million to P227 million) higher than the year ended 31 December 2024 of P61 million.

The Group's audited financial results for the year ended 31 December 2025 will be released on or before 31 March 2026. Shareholders are reminded to exercise caution when trading in the Company's securities until the conclusion of the ongoing negotiations and the release of further updates.
