Absa Bank Botswana Limited Board announces appointment of Finance Director

Absa Bank Botswana Limited (“the Bank”) today announced the appointment of Ms Cynthia Morapedi as the Finance Director of the Bank and Executive Director of the Board, effective 24 July 2020.

Cynthia, a Chartered Accountant with over 16 years work experience, joined the Bank in October 2015 as the Financial Controller, and has since cemented and successfully led the team into a dynamic and high performing team, while significantly contributing to the Finance Department. Prior to joining the bank, Cynthia amassed vast finance experience as a leader responsible for areas such as financial reporting, business planning, performance and analytics, tax management, treasury operations, general administration, governance and control.

Cynthia holds a Masters of Business Administration (MBA) degree from Oxford University Brookes (UK), as well as a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting obtained from the University of Botswana. Cynthia is a Fellow and a member in good standing of both the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (ACCA, UK) and the Botswana Institute of Chartered Accountants (BICA).

On behalf of management, employees and stakeholders of the Bank, the Board welcomes Cynthia into her new role and is confident that her wealth of experience and passion for the financial service sector will be invaluable and inspire further delivery of the Bank’s ambition.
